TV What to Watch

FRIDAY OCTOBER 3

Yoda

9-10PM

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Cartoon, TV-PG-V Older Star Wars fans loathed The Clone Wars, George Lucas' movie 'toon about prequel-era Obi-Wan and Anakin. At least the TV spin-off is decent—definitely more suspenseful and character-centric than the bombastic pilot flick. Its target audience—kids—will dig it. And middle-aged haters will hate it a little less. B —Jeff Jensen

SEASON PREMIERE 8-8:30PM

Everybody Hates Chris
The CW

You can't go wrong with guest star Jackée, whom I will never acknowledge as Jackée Harry. She's too good for a last name.

SERIES DEBUT 8-9PM

Tommy Hilfiger Presents "Ironic Iconic America"
Bravo, TV-14

A road trip across the USA exploring American pop culture is cohosted by an Israeli, model Bar Refaeli. Wait, is that ironic or just bad casting?

SERIES DEBUT ON DEMAND

here! With Josh and Sara here!, TV-14

Gay! Lesbian! Talk show! On! The network! That always! Seems to be! Shouting at me!

CRITICAL MATH:
Phillips and Morrow search for clues

10-11PM

Numb3rs

CBS, TV-PG-LV

SEASON PREMIERE

Math brainiac Charlie Eppes (David Krumholtz) no longer has security clearance in this unmemorable episode, so he can't assist bro Don (Rob Morrow) with his FBI cases. But when Don's life is endangered by gun-toting diamond thieves, Charlie deserts his teaching duties to help out anyway. Don't feel sorry for Krumholtz, Morrow, or returning guest actor Lou Diamond Phillips. Feel sorry for Charlie's students, who, once again, are paying heaven-knows-how-high tuition fees in return for diddly-squat. C+ —Clark Collis

SAT OCT 4

SERIES DEBUT NOON-12:30PM

Turbo Dogs
NBC, TV-Y7

Is it odd for a dog to sell hot dogs, even if he's a cartoon?

8:30-9PM

COPS: Crimes in Progress Special Edition
Fox, TV-PG

You've seen drunk, shirtless guys. Now see the crimes they were celebrating by getting drunk and shirtless.

SEASON PREMIERE 9-9:30PM

My Big Redneck Wedding
CMT, TV-14-DL

Three words: wedding mud pit. Feeling superior yet?

11PM-MIDNIGHT

Louis C.K.: Chewed Up
Showtime, TV-MA-DL

Louis jokes about life after 40. Peers will laugh knowingly, and then fall asleep on the couch halfway through.
