THE MINOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF JACKIE WOODMAN

IFC

Written by and starring former Will & Grace and Roseanne writer Laura Kightlinger, Accomplishments is an uncomfortable yet wickedly funny look at the unsuccessful life of one Hollywood E-lister. Kightlinger is back for a second season as the socially-challenged and underemployed Woodman, who searches for personal and professional validation while hanging on to her own petty selfishness. Blown opportunities and poor judgment have never been so amusing. August 2007

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL 2

Disney Channel

The sequel to Disney Channel's surprise TV movie hit picks up where the original left off: the last day of school at East High. But fear not—you can do lots of dancing and singing during summer break too! The kids all get jobs at Sharpay's (Ashley Tisdale) family country club, where the group face off at the club's annual summer music production. All the kids reprise their original roles (including Zac Efron and Corbin Bleu), while Emmy-winning director and choreographer Kenny Ortega is back to keep things rolling. August 2007

DL CHRONICLES

here! TV

Filmmakers Quincy LeNear and Deondray Gossett (Wes) explore the lives of men of color living on the Down Low through the eyes of Chadwick Williams (Damien T. Raven), a journalist who is researching a book on men who have sex with men but are not open to themselves and/or the rest of the people in their lives about their sexuality. Each episode deals with a different guy on the DL, from the street-corner hustler to the successful executive to the happily married father of two. Date TBD

THE LAIR

here! TV

Building off the success of its other supernatural series, Dante's Cove, here! goes the way of the vampire in The Lair. A young journalist (David Moretti) in a small coastal town investigates why nameless young men with neck wounds are showing up dead, only to find the cause is an all-male cabal of handsome neck-suckers. Peter Stickles (Shortbus) plays Damian, leader of the vampire coven, which we assume are shirtless as much as inhumanly possible. Date TBD
