OUT Face to Face

here! TV recently announced the debut of OUT Face to Face, a new interview series with today's hottest artists, actors, musical talents, and pop culture icons. The show is currently airing on here! TV, with the second episode airing December 24. The show can also be viewed at here! Online, here! TV's premium online subscription video player found at www.heretv.com.

The first OUT Face to Face episode features Maroon 5 front man Adam Levine (pictured), Tori Amos, Tegan & Sara, and many others offering insights into the creative process. Additionally, the artists share stories about their songs, their fans, and their lives as the rose from relative obscurity to become the brightest stars of the day. Levine, for example, tells OUT Face to Face that the fact that people find him attractive "may be somewhat detrimental to what I'm trying to do." But he also concedes that it's "also really helpful. It's kind of a double-edged sword. It's great. It's propelled me to a place that I enjoy mostly."

Tune in to here! TV every two weeks for new episodes of OUT Face to Face with upcoming guests including Annie Lennox, Ani DiFranco, Ke$ha, the Backstreet Boys, Tila Tequila, Blake Lewis, and many more.
