Emmy Worthy Show Returns This Fall To Snatch Mad Men's Wig.

'Dante's Cove 4: Book of Tresum' premieres this Fall after 4 year-hiatus.

Here! TV, the world's leading premium gay television network, today announced new series and specials including a new season of fan favorite and network staple Dante's Cove with a new chapter in the mystical saga, Dante's Cove: Book of Tresum.

"Our reinvigorated production and development slate demonstrates here! TV's commitment to investing in an unprecedented amount of high-quality, (lol, really bitch? really?) provocative, and entertaining original programming. The ever-expanding lineup is being created specifically for our loyal audience with programming that cannot be seen anywhere else," said Eric Feldman, here! TV's Executive Vice President and General Manager. "We are most excited to announce the return of the wildly successful cult favorite Dante's Cove. Book of Tresum will delight the die-hard fan as well as the thrill new viewers worldwide."

Dante's Cove: Book of Tresum (eight episodes; 30 minutes) Premieres Late Fall 2011 — The Dante's Cove saga continues as the secrets, intrigues, and mysteries of Dante's Cove arise far away from its island origins. The new chapter begins as the protectors of the "Book of Tresum" seek out the only individual who can unite the Houses of the Sun and the Moon. (lol. as if people cared about the plot.)

I always skipped to the 'good parts' but the bit of plot and acting I saw was cringeworthy.
